Description

A superb oil-on-canvas painting depicting a detail from the monumental work by Valentin de Boulogne (1591-1632), "The Judgment of Solomon." This painting highlights Caravaggio's influence on Valentin de Boulogne's work--the skin tones, the chiaroscuro, the intensity, and the dramatic quality of the scene. This fragment, which is very faithful to the original, attests to the great skill of the artist who created it. In a beautiful, generous frame made of blackened wood with a faux marble finish. Late 18th/early 19th century. Dimensions: With frame: 108 cm x 75 cm Artwork only: 85 cm x 55 cm
