Description

19th-century inlaid tabletop set from the Karlsbad spa resort (Czech Republic). Crafted from fine materials and precious woods, such as Amboina burl or thuja, with a central medallion framed in brass (featuring a floral design with beige ribbon-patterned stone--Sprudelstein or thermal aragonite--malachite, and white and yellow semi-precious stones). Peripheral geometric frieze in ebony, lemonwood, thuja, and mother-of-pearl, with a rounded profile. Floral spandrels with mother-of-pearl inlay. Small silver plate on the handle above the keyhole. Original lock and key in working condition. Inscribed at the base of the central medallion: Karlsbad. Exquisite white lacquered interior (embellished with a quilted yellow satin fabric backing). Black lacquer on the locking contact area. Old label from Karlsbad on
