

Pair Of Louis XVI-style Castle Trumeau Mirrors

2 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Painted wood

Description

Large pair of Louis XVI-era trumeaux made of gray-painted wood with carved wooden garland decorations. The two trumeaux were displayed facing each other in the château. One of the trumeaux features a canvas painting depicting cherubs, while the other is entirely carved wood. They need cleaning; there are two small missing pieces of molding on the bottom of the larger one. The larger one measures 240 cm high by 125 cm wide; the second measures 214 cm by 115 cm.
