

Cameo Set As A Brooch On A Silver Frame With Marcasite - Late 19th Century

130 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

A beautiful, large shell cameo depicting a man dressed in 16th-century fashion, seen in profile. It is mounted as a brooch, set in a solid silver setting with marcasite inclusions. On the back is a silversmith's hallmark that we have not been able to identify. Made in France in the late 19th century. Beautifully crafted, very finely carved.

Height: 4 cm
