Description

Large panel composed of 15 ceramic tiles glued onto tinted particleboard. The design depicts an interior scene featuring a face reflected in a mirror, along with a bouquet of roses and a window overlooking a pond. The panel is very colorful, featuring shades of blue, red, orange, and yellow. A beautiful piece by this ceramic artist, likely from the 1960s. On the back of the panel are the production number 583 and "Gilbert Valentin, les Archanges." For more information, please feel free to contact me.
