Description

An elegant mahogany bookcase with two glass-paneled doors. The glass panes are original and antique, featuring the slight bubbles characteristic of 19th-century blown glass. The lower panels are veneered with beautiful flamed mahogany. The piece is topped with a straight, molded cornice and rests on turned legs. Cannot be disassembled! The interior features three shelves, offering ample storage space for books or collectibles. Beautiful antique patina; lock and key are functional. A simple and refined piece, ideal for a cabinet of curiosities, a library, or displaying objects. Delivery within Metropolitan France: EUR150. Contact us for more information.
