Description

An elegant bronze bust with a brown patina depicting Ariadne, a figure from Greek mythology, rendered here in a style inspired by antiquity. The face, slightly tilted, features idealised features, whilst the abundant, lively hair reinforces the neoclassical character of the composition.The work rests on a quadrangular plinth and makes a striking decorative statement thanks to the balance of its silhouette and the quality of its nuanced brown patina. This 19th-century piece reflects the taste of the time, which held ancient and mythological subjects in high regard.The inscription 'L. Oudry Éditeur' refers to Léopold Oudry, a renowned 19th-century French technician, chemist and art publisher. Active mainly between 1854 and 1882, he is renowned for his revolutionary use of
