Description

A beautiful alabaster sculpture depicting Michelangelo's Moses. This sculpture was modeled after Michelangelo's original, which is housed in the Church of San Pietro a Vincoli in Rome, and was created by a talented sculptor active in the capital during the early 19th century. The sculpture is skillfully rendered in its drapery and masculine anatomical details. The sculpture, 36 cm tall, rests on a small base made of green serpentine marble, 3 cm high. A certificate of authenticity is included with the sale. Insured and tracked shipping with professional packaging handled by us.
