Description

Set of 7 small stemmed glasses, each adorned with a charming, hand-painted naive-style design and labeled with the name of a liqueur (Kirsch, Grand Marnier, Bénédicte, Verveine du Velay, Izarra, Couventine, Vieille Cure). Signed "Delvaux Paris" on the back. Founded in the 1880s and located at 18 rue Royale in Paris, Delvaux was a prestigious retailer specializing in tableware and decorative objects made of glass, crystal, porcelain, and earthenware from renowned houses such as Baccarat, Haviland, Sèvres, and others. In the 1920s and 1930s, a decorative arts workshop was established within the store, and Delvaux began producing vases of its own design. The business remained in operation until the 1970s. In good overall condition. 20th-century. Dimensions: H: 9 cm D:
