Description

A rare and beautiful lamp made of bright blue earthenware with subtle shading and a white interior, shaped like a large bowl resting on four legs, featuring 16 open-sided light passages with molded glass flowers that diffuse light on four sides from the center, carefully placed glass tubes; the center shines powerfully toward the ceiling. This piece comes from the famous Parisian firm "Art Luminescence" in the 1950s and 1960s, reflecting the meticulous craftsmanship and originality of that era. Both modernist and classic, this lovely piece will serve as a refined focal point in your living room, creating a cozy atmosphere; exuding elegance with its gradually flaring ring of small flowers, set on a beautifully enameled base; a high-quality, distinctive design (featuring the manufacturing number label from
