Description

A unique teardrop-shaped console table made of carved and silver-plated wood, featuring a pleasingly undulating silhouette. The silver, worn in some areas, reveals the underlying patina; the silvered surface features a distinctive finish that alternates between smooth and embossed sections. The shaped gray marble top follows the undulating line of the band. In good condition, consistent with its age and signs of use. Veneto, 18th century
Dimensions: L 71 cm, D 33 cm, H 36 cm
