Secretary Desk With A Drop-leaf Top, Brought Back From Egypt, Made Of Mahogany, 19th-century

880 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

"Return from Egypt" drop-front secretary desk in light mahogany - Empire period, 19th centuryElegant drop-front secretary desk in light mahogany, Empire period - "Return from Egypt" style, dating from the first half of the 19th century.This high-quality piece is topped with its original light-colored marble. The upper section opens with a belt drawer, followed by a wide drop-down flap revealing a fully equipped interior consisting of numerous small drawers, compartments, and a central drawer. The drop-down panel forms a spacious writing desk that retains its original leather covering. The lower section opens via two doors, revealing a storage compartment.The side panels are adorned with superb gilded bronze busts of women in the classical style, characteristic of the "Return from

Dealer

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth
Galerie Christophe Elisabeth
Mobile : 06 99 48 80 76

1 domaine de Montrabech
Lézignan-Corbières 11200

Egypt" style, while the claw feet reinforce the imperial character of this piece. The bronze fittings, metalwork, and lock plates are original.The quality of the light mahogany, the spectacular grain of the front panel, the harmonious proportions, and the richness of its interior design make this a highly elegant piece of furniture, as decorative as it is functional.In very good condition, with a beautiful original patina.Dimensions:Height: 148.5 cmWidth: 100 cmDepth: 45 cmThis "Retour d'Égypte" Empire-style secretary desk is a prime piece for connoisseurs of 19th-century French furniture, combining prestige, high-quality cabinetmaking, and functionality.