Description

Louis XVI-style sloping-top secretary desk in walnut - 18th century
Charming sloping-top secretary desk in solid walnut, Louis XVI style, late 18th century. This piece opens with a belt drawer and a drop-down panel revealing a fully equipped interior consisting of four small drawers, a central compartment, and a shelf serving as a writing surface. Its original interior layout makes it as practical as it is elegant. The front is adorned with a beautiful original bronze lock, while the drop-down brass handles emphasize the simplicity and elegance of the Louis XVI style. The walnut features a beautiful grain and a warm, antique patina. Resting on four tapered legs, this writing desk features harmonious proportions that allow it to fit seamlessly into both classic and contemporary
