Description

DescriptionThis striking hand-painted studio pottery vase features bold abstract brushwork in black over a soft cream ground, creating a dramatic monochrome composition with a distinctly modern aesthetic. The tall, elegant form provides an ideal canvas for the sweeping gestural decoration, where expressive circular and organic motifs wrap fluidly around the vessel. The contrast between the matte ceramic surface and the confident painterly application gives the piece a sculptural quality that is equally compelling displayed with or without flowers. Likely produced during the late 20th century, the vase reflects the influence of contemporary studio ceramics, where individual craftsmanship and artistic expression take precedence over uniform production. Its minimalist palette and timeless
