

Austrian Pug Dog Made Of Terracotta

750 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Terracotta

Height : 20 cm

Description

This seated Austrian pug is a beautiful cold-painted terracotta sculpture dating from the late 19th century (circa 1880-1890) and typical of Viennese craftsmanship of the time. The work stands out for its strong expressive realism, accentuated by the detailed wrinkles on the muzzle, the collar decorated with relief, and the characteristic amber-colored glass eyes that have been applied.
