Description

Louis XV-style living room side table with marquetry on all sides. Elegant Louis XV-style living room side table, oval in shape, made of precious wood veneer and richly decorated with marquetry on all sides. The top features a remarkable marquetry design depicting a rural scene with figures gathered around a chest beneath large trees, embellished with birds and finely executed foliage. The quality of the various types of wood used gives the piece a beautiful depth and a warm contrast of colors. The curved apron, inlaid around its perimeter, opens to reveal a drawer at the front fitted with its original bronze handle. The side panels are adorned with finely chiseled bronze finials and rest on four curved legs topped with bronze feet. An elegant crossbar, also inlaid, features a floral motif accompanied by motifs evoking card games, attesting to the care taken with the decoration down to the smallest details. Fully finished on all sides, this pedestal table can be placed in the center of a room and will fit perfectly in a living room, an office, or a library. Its refined decoration, the quality of its marquetry, and its bronze fittings lend it all the charm of Louis XV-style furniture. In very good condition, with a beautiful patina. A few slight signs of wear consistent with its age.
