"ILLUSTRATED IN ITS ENTIRETY with 94 single PLATES and 9 FOLDED PLATES (double-page spreads). (height 43.2 cm / width 28.5 cm) Photos of some engravings from the work: the portal of Notre Dame de Paris, a double-page spread of St. Peter's in Rome, the façade of the Louvre, architectural elements in stone, wood, or iron, church furnishings (pulpit, organ, etc.), from palaces (fireplace paneling, bedroom, stoves, wrought-iron grilles... Ruins of Roman temples, and the engravings on the introductory and final pages. The cover is a simple cardboard binding with marbled paper (likely added later). Overall, the book is in good condition, with a few creases on the double-page spreads, some foxing, and worm damage along the edges of a few pages--none of which affects the engravings... This work is part of a policy for
