Description

A superb piece, a rather unique wrought iron ornament, forged, hammered, and incised across the entire front of ring with a foliage motif. The upper shaft, quite massive, features face of grotesque figure with a big nose sticking its tongue out at you. A lovely little wall plaque, definitely 18th century, with openwork ironwork. 17 cm x 13 cm x 13 cm, weight: 700 g. Good condition, some wear, no breaks.
