Description

Watercolor by Georges Villain depicting the Merchants of the Four Seasons in Paris. Signed in the lower right corner. Gilded frame. Dimensions: 23 x 27.7 cm; with frame: 40 x 45 cm Trained by Henri Harpignies, Georges René Villain (1854-1930) exhibited at the Salon in Paris. He painted numerous landscapes, particularly in Normandy and Paris. This watercolor depicts vendors of the four seasons. They were often women, as is the case in this watercolor. These women sold fruit, vegetables, or ice cream and transported their goods using handcarts, setting up shop in the streets and public places.
