Description

A charming and graceful 19th-century Italian alabaster sculpture, in the Renaissance style, depicting a veiled woman in a bust portrait wearing a dress with a large, ornate collar; the symmetrical features of her beautiful face are striking--could she be a saint? It embodies the spirit of the era of "Great Italy," which was deeply passionate about ancient history and the artistic models that captivated artists such as "Bosio" in his time. A beautiful decorative piece, understated yet well-sculpted and polished--a high-quality work, full of serenity and in very good condition.
