Description

Silver votive wreath or statue wreath--repoussé and openwork--18th centuryElegant votive wreath intended to adorn a religious statue, crafted from silver (hallmarked). The frame is richly decorated with openwork motifs of foliage and scrolls inspired by the Baroque style, resting on a base adorned with a row of raised cabochons. The four finely chased arches converge beneath a cross at the topThe crown is equipped with its original mounting pin, allowing it to be attached to a sculpture of the Virgin Mary or the Infant Jesus.Condition: Very good condition, with slight signs of wear consistent with its age. The mounting pin is present.Please feel free to contact me for any additional information or to request more photos of the items offered for sale.
