Description

Elegant, curved two-section corner sideboard. Completely rounded on the front, a low sideboard on legs, with two doors separated by a central post, topped by a shelf with the second section set back, which consists of an upper section designed in the same style as the lower section. The four paneled doors feature square, diamond-pointed "macarons" at their corners in a simple, elegant Louis XV style; this piece has a patina that appears to be its original wax finish.
