Description

A charming watercolor with gouache highlights on genuine vellum depicting a young woman dancing in an elegant 18th-century-inspired costume. The work is dated 1812 and signed in the lower right corner (the signature is difficult to decipher but may read "A. Le More," subject to confirmation). Very fine execution: a finely modeled face, rich details in the fabrics, pearls, and ribbons, and delicate white highlights. Vellum is a noble and relatively uncommon medium, particularly prized for early 19th-century miniatures. In good condition; note that the mounting on the mat is coming loose
Total dimensions: 40 x 31 cm
