Description

Fornasetti Umbrella Stand from the 1950s This famous trompe l'oeil umbrella stand was designed by Piero Fornasetti in the 1950s. Crafted from screen-printed and hand-painted metal, it features a crescent shape. The decoration features a detailed illustration of colorful umbrellas, walking sticks, and boots. Every graphic detail reflects the irony and surreal style typical of the Milanese designer. It is an iconic collector's item of 20th-century Italian design.
