

At Pont-à-mousson, Napoleon III-era Tilting Side Table In Blackened Wood With Mother-of-pearl Inlay

750 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Att Pont-à-Mousson, Tilting Side Table in Blackened Wood and Boiled Mother-of-Pearl Cardboard
Napoleon III Period
Elegant side table with an oval tilting top, resting on a tripod base, adorned with gilded decorations on a black background. Its top features a delicate design depicting a lively lakeside landscape, enhanced by mother-of-pearl inlay. This side table features an ingenious and functional mechanism that allows the top to tilt, making it easy to move and store vertically. There is a beautiful contrast between the ebonized background, the grisaille painting, and the mother-of-pearl inlays.
Exquisitely crafted furniture with elegant and refined lines, attributed to Pont-à-Mousson. This side table combines practicality with style, making it perfect for a living room, entryway, or

Dealer

DANTAN

Mobilier et objets XVIIIème, XIXème, XXème

Mobile : 06.81.50.13.37

Arras 62000

as an accent piece. With its lovely proportions and ingenious design, it will easily fit into your home. Its beautifully decorated top also makes for a stunning visual feature; this piece exemplifies the refinement of Napoleon III-era furniture and will enhance your home. Napoleon III-era piece, 19th century Dimensions: Height: 74 cm Diameter: 55.5 cm In excellent condition. Please feel free to contact us for any additional information. WWW.DANTAN.STORE