Description

Gallia Christofle Art Nouveau bread basket in silver-plated metal, early 20th century. Created by the Christofle workshops, the Gallia collection was a true revolution in tableware in the early 20th century. Christofle's move toward greater accessibility is embodied by Gallia--more affordable and more creative for everyone--tableware pieces and objects have never been more beautiful, becoming true little gems of French tableware thanks to the advent of the Art Nouveau era and increased demand. This silver-plated metal bread basket embodies the quintessence of Art Nouveau, with an organic shape featuring fluid curves inspired by nature. Its ovoid shape is accented at the ends by flower baskets with open corollas and stems fanning out. In very good overall condition, with slight
