Description

A charming little Viennese lead elephant with a black patina, depicted walking with its trunk raised and tusks visible. The piece features a beautiful, expressive silhouette with lively modeling despite its small size. Some signs of wear and minor scuffs are visible, consistent with the age and typical use of this type of decorative object. A small collector's item full of character, ideal for complementing a display case of animal figurines, Viennese lead figurines, or antique curiosities. Period Late 19th - early 20th century, circa 1900. Material Painted / patinated lead. Dimensions Length: approximately 6 cm. Condition Good overall condition, with normal wear and signs of patina due to age. Please feel free to contact us for any further information or additional photographs. Also check out our latest
