Description

A French print from the second half of the 1800s. The complex scene takes place outdoors, in a hilly and mountainous landscape dominated in the background by a hilltop village and an ancient aqueduct. At the center of the composition is a wooden cart pulled by oxen (crouching in the foreground), on which lies a wounded or dying man, being tended to and comforted by a friar or monk dressed in white. A dense visual narrative unfolds around the cart, evoking an episode of capture in the context of brigandage: The Confession of an Italian Brigand Leader. Provenance: France Period: second half of the 1800s Dimensions: 83x72h cm SKU: 17484
