Description

A French print from the second half of the 1800s depicting a dramatic and solemn moment in a crowded interior: in the center, a figure (presumably a nobleman or high-ranking dignitary) lies on his deathbed, surrounded by doctors, family members, and court officials who are visibly distraught. On the right, a man stands holding a candlestick that illuminates the room."DERNIERS MOMENTS DE S. A. R. MONSEIG.^r LE DUC DE BERRY" (The Last Moments of H.R.H. Monsignor the Duke of Berry), followed by the inscription "Dédié au Roi" (Dedicated to the King).Provenance: FranceDate: second half of the 1800sDimensions: 72x76h cmSKU: 17485
