Description

These bowls combine the luster of gilded bronze with Sienna Yellow marble. Each gilded bronze bowl features a flared basin decorated with radiating gadroons, flanked by two finely chiseled handles. The bowl rests on an elegant columnar pedestal of Siena yellow marble, accented at its base by a gilt-bronze frieze featuring waterleaf motifs. The ensemble rests on a marble base with typical dark veining. The set is in very fine original condition. Empire style, dating from around 1820.
