

18th-century Portrait Composition

9 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

A composition of thirteen oil portraits on canvas, 18th century. The composition depicts a series of male portraits representing one of the oldest and most illustrious noble families of Piedmont, originally from the Canavese region. Their history is inextricably linked to the town of Valperga and to the legendary King of Italy, Arduino, from whom the family claimed descent. Lacquered frame. Dimensions: 55 cm x 65 cm
