Description

A rare Sèvres porcelain dessert set comprising 6 plates and a matching fruit bowl on a pedestal, adorned with superb hand-painted portraits depicting iconic figures from French history, such as Louis XIII, Louis XIV, Louis XVI, Louis XVIII, Marie Antoinette, and Madame de Maintenon. Each piece is decorated with a finely painted central medallion, surrounded by a turquoise-blue border embellished with gold fleurs-de-lis and rich fine-gold gilding. The names of the figures are inscribed in gold letters within an elegant cartouche. The pieces bear the prestigious Château de Fontainebleau mark, indicating that they were produced for an official residence of the State or the Court. Sèvres porcelain produced for royal and imperial castles is particularly sought after for its craftsmanship,
