

Vermeil Sugar Bowl, France, 1819-1838

1 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Length : 21 cm

Height : 16,5 cm

Description

A vermeil sugar bowl resting on a fluted base, rectangular in shape with a baluster-style body and a rounded, bulging belly. The neck, with a wide, curved opening, is adorned with beaded friezes and topped by a lid whose crown is decorated with a flower-bud-shaped knob. The sugar bowl features two openwork side handles with palmette-shaped attachments. 950/1000 silver, Vieillard hallmarks, Parisian craftsmanship, 1819-1838. Master silversmith's hallmark: Antoine Levasseur, active in Paris from 1825 to 1862. Length: 21 cm Width: 12 cm Height: 16.5 cm Weight: 644 g Condition: Excellent, nearly new.

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600