Description

Antique ring holder from the Napoleon III period, combining a natural mother-of-pearl bowl with a gilded bronze mount. The piece rests on a circular alabaster base. The setting is adorned with a naturalistic design featuring vine shoots, leaves, and bunches of grapes. Designed to hold rings, earrings, or small pieces of fine jewelry, this ring holder also makes a charming decorative piece for a dressing table, display case, or cabinet of curiosities. It reflects the refined taste of the Napoleon III era for fine materials and decorative objects inspired by nature. Height: 10 cm Length: 11.5 cm In good condition, with slight signs of wear.
