Description

Jardinière, centerpiece vase in cut crystal with amethyst overlay, attributed to Saint-Louis or Val Saint-Lambert. An important shaped piece in heavy crystal, blown and worked by hand. This model may be used as a jardinière, a vase, or a table centerpiece. The material consists of clear crystal overlaid with a layer of amethyst-colored crystal. The wheel-cutting technique cuts through the colored layer to reveal the transparency of the underlying crystal. Flared form resting on a wide, plain circular pedestal foot in a dark color. Rich cut decoration arranged in registers. Around the rim, a broad and complex frieze combining geometric motifs, crosshatching, and fine vertical striations. On the body, an alternation of wide flat ribs and deep lancet cuts creates a play of light and contrast between the deep violet tone and the
