Description

Early 18th-century Spanish bronze oil lamp with 4 burners. A charming oil lamp featuring a set of maintenance tools suspended from chains. The round base has a raised rim designed to prevent debris from falling onto the surface where the lamp is placed. It features a central shaft that begins with a Solomonic column and a finial in the shape of a two-headed eagle. Superb patina and in magnificent condition. Shipping available to Belgium, France, and internationally. On display in our 2,500 m² showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
