Description

Watercolor "Still Life with Floral Arrangement," signed Madeleine Renaud - 20th century A refined watercolor signed "Madeleine Renaud" in the lower right corner, depicting an elegant floral arrangement in a vase. Delicate flowers in shades of pink, peach, and white bloom harmoniously within a vase, creating a composition of great balance and decorative appeal. The watercolor technique enhances the lightness of the glazes and the softness of the colors, lending the work a luminous and romantic atmosphere. Madeleine Renaud (1885-1979) was a French watercolorist whose work was primarily devoted to the depiction of flowers, making her the leading French artist in the field of floral bouquet painting in the 20th century. Trained in Paris in watercolor and porcelain painting, she produced a
