

19th-century Victorian Period Brown Leather Club Armchair

2 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Leather

Width : 91

Height : 86

Depth : 85

Description

High-Quality, Untouched Brown Leather

Victorian Armchair A high-quality, untouched 19th-century brown leather button-back club armchair of substantial and well-balanced proportions. The generously shaped frame features a deeply buttoned upholstered back and arms, all retaining the original brown leather.

Refined details include elegant, scroll-shaped arms, a sprung seat with a loose, feather-filled cushion, and close-nailed brass stud decoration. The chair stands on square, tapering legs, giving it a clean, understated profile that complements its classic form. The leather displays a beautiful, untouched golden-brown color with a rich, even patina developed over many years, making the chair both visually striking and extremely comfortable. In superb original condition, with no

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

damage or repairs, it represents an excellent example of Victorian-period seating. The seat height is 49 cm. Overall, this club armchair is in very good original condition, combining genuine comfort with a strong decorative presence. Its warm tone and exceptional patina clearly reflect the quality of the piece and the careful maintenance it has received over time.