Description

Rare cut crystal cookie box attributed to Le Creusot - Gilded bronze mount - Napoleon III periodA rare and elegant cut crystal cookie box, attributed to the prestigious Cristallerie du Creusot, adorned with a remarkable finely chiseled and gilded bronze mount, a French piece from the late 19th century.The crystal, of exceptional clarity, features deep diamond-point and beveled cuts, creating a magnificent play of light. The base is adorned with a cut star, a finish characteristic of high-quality 19th-century French crystalware.The gilded bronze setting, inspired by the Louis XVI style, is richly decorated with friezes of pearls, water leaves, and delicate movable rings. The hinged lid, held in place by its original chain, highlights the care taken in its craftsmanship and its luxurious
