Description

Look no further--this piece is iconic! It's a stunning Caucasian rug belonging to the great family of Kazakh rugs. It has it all. First, a composition of four large octagonal medallions set against a central field in a flamboyant cochineal red of extraordinary luminosity. A low-pile knot weave, as found on the finest antique Caucasian rugs. Deep, delightful indigo blues. A few stylized scorpions subtly scattered across the field. Delicate borders with geometric motifs. Extraordinary dimensions, especially considering that most Caucasian kilims are about 2 meters long. The piece is dated, which is quite rare. In perfect condition. I'll conclude by noting the presence of a magnificent bottle green--one of the hues most sought after by collectors. Wool on wool. Plant-based dyes. Dimensions: 295 x 135
