Description

An exceptional curved panel, carved in high relief, depicting three haloed angels brought together in a composition of great harmony. Created in the 19th century in the style of the Italian Quattrocento, illustrating the revival of the Renaissance arts. The central angel, rendered with nobility and serenity, is flanked by two angel musicians. The faces with their delicate expressions, the flowing hair, the deeply carved wings, and the drapery with its supple folds attest to the high quality of the craftsmanship. The piece as a whole offers a remarkable interplay of light and shadow through the walnut patina. Period: 19th century Dimensions: height 85 x width 147 cm
