Description

An early 19th-century solid walnut folding-leaf table, a fine example of the refined cabinetmaking of the period. The oval tabletop with folding wings rests on sturdy turned legs, giving the piece great stability and a timeless classic character. Thanks to its extendable system featuring 130 cm straps and four extension pieces, the table can be expanded from a compact configuration to a maximum length of approximately 4 meters, making it ideal for both everyday use and large receptions or formal settings. A rare, functional piece with a striking presence, perfect for elegant interiors or historic homes. Dimensions: o When closed: L 129.5 × D 92 × H 77 cm
