Description

This frosted glass sculpture depicts an adult bear, standing on all four paws with its head bowed.

Signed on the base of one paw "rare model" TBE "The Polar Bear" is both spectacular and symbolic. Bears represent strength, family, and courage. The bear is caring, independent, self-reliant, and determined. This majestic animal, which reigns over the frozen lands of the Arctic, symbolizes the ability to adapt to the most challenging environments. The polar bear is crafted using the classic Daum crystal technique--transparent and frosted--dating from the 1980s, in excellent condition. Dimensions: length: 16 cm height: 10 cm depth: 5 cm Country of origin: France. Daum, the legendary master glassmaker, has maintained a loving relationship for over a century with the greatest artists of his time, giving their works a second life in crystal and color. From the École de Nancy, from Art Nouveau to the Decorative Arts, from Majorelle to Dali, Arman and Hilton McConnico, Daum has never missed a single magical encounter between artistic creation and modern craftsmanship--this ever-evolving marriage of art and craftsmanship. Few brands have collaborated with as many artists: over nearly 140 years, more than 350 exceptional signatures have built an incomparable legacy--a one-of-a-kind collection.
