

Consulat-period Mahogany Athenian-style Washbasin, Circa 1800

1 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Consulat-Period Mahogany Athenian-Style Washbasin, circa 1800 Superb and Rare Athenian-Style Washbasin, Resting on Three Curved and Carved Legs, decorated at the top with stylized heads and ending in claw feet. Its circular mahogany veneer band frames a patinated metal basin. Its tripod base is joined by a circular crossbar topped with gray marble veined with white, encircled by a gilded brass band. A rare piece of furniture of very fine craftsmanship, featuring understated and elegant lines. This washbasin, which is both functional and decorative, can serve as a planter, a chiller, or a stool. With its lovely proportions, it will easily complement your decor. This delicately crafted piece, with its harmonious and refined lines, exemplifies the elegance of Consulate-era

Dealer

DANTAN

Mobilier et objets XVIIIème, XIXème, XXème

Mobile : 06.81.50.13.37

Arras 62000

furniture. It will enhance your home. Consulat-era piece, circa 1800. Dimensions: Basin diameter: 39 cm Overall diameter: 43 cm Height: 85 cm In excellent condition We are at your disposal for any additional information WWW.DANTAN.STORE