Description

A cream-painted wooden checkered box with a figure painted on the front as well as on the four small boxes inside. It dates from the Empire period. It measures 19.5 cm long by 15.5 cm wide by 5 cm high. Each small box inside measures 8.5 cm by 6.5 cm by 3 cm high. The entire set is in good condition. In the early 17th century, wealthy travelers who came to Spa for spa treatments would purchase boxes for needlework, sewing, and tea--known as "jolités"--from renowned artisans.
