Description

Carved and gilded wooden parlor stool - 19th century
Elegant Baroque-style parlor stool, crafted from finely carved wood with rich decoration featuring volutes and floral motifs. The frame features flowing, harmonious lines, enhanced by a turned crossbar and shaped legs--elements that lend the piece remarkable elegance and lightness. The seat has recently been upholstered in red satin fabric, finished with coordinating trim, offering a pleasing contrast to the gilding. The gilding has been fully restored through conservative conservation work, restoring uniformity and brilliance while highlighting the richness of the carvings, all while respecting the original aesthetic of the piece. Features* Period: 19th century* Dimensions: height 50 cm, seat 43.5 x 38 cm*
