

White Opaline Glass Bowl And Silver-plated Metal Frame, Late 19th Century

340 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Opale

Description

An elegant, two-compartment cup made of molded white opaline, featuring a flowing shape and enhanced by delicate hand-painted gold decoration. It features an elegant silver-plated metal mount, finely embossed and chased, adorned with clusters of grapes, vine leaves, and flowers. The quality of its craftsmanship and the refinement of its decoration are hallmarks of fine French work from the late 19th century. In good overall condition. Slight wear on the gilding consistent with its age. No cracks or chips observed. Dimensions: 27 / 24 / 20 cm
