Description

By GIRARDIÈRE (19th-20th centuries) Autumn Fruits in a Blue Cookie Jar Watercolor Signed lower right 25 x 34 cm (image size) | 40.5 x 49.5 cm (with frame)-French school, likely from the interwar period, this early-autumn still life features apples, pears, quinces, and hazelnuts at the base of an elegant bluish-glass cookie jar with a silver mount, set against a draped background. With delicate washes and a soft, vibrant palette, the artist accurately captures the textures, transparencies, and a subtle interplay of light and shadow. More than a simple still-life exercise, this composition--in the spirit of the Decorative Arts period while remaining faithful to a naturalistic tradition--soberly evokes the charm of a bourgeois provincial interior, where elegant everyday objects accompany the first fruits of the
