Description

A splendid example of vintage Tuscan craftsmanship, this wrought-iron double bed combines elegance and sophistication. The frame retains its original, finely handcrafted paintings and decorations, featuring gilded motifs and captivating figurative scenes. The headboards feature the sinuous lines and scrollwork typical of the late 18th-century style, while the painted panels add a unique and sophisticated character. A rare piece, ideal for collectors, period interiors, or interior design projects that call for historical authenticity.
