Description

Louis XVI-Style Coffee Table, Late 19th Century
A lovely Louis XVI-style mahogany coffee table, resting on four tapered legs with fluted panels inlaid with gilded brass, ending in gilded bronze feet. This table features a square top, adorned with a beautiful inlaid green veined marble top surrounded by a gilded brass border. Its frame is adorned with chiseled bronze appliqué featuring rosette motifs at the corners and moldings highlighting each side of the frame. Beautiful gilded bronze ornamentation, including the gallery, rings, feet, fluting, and moldings. High-quality furniture with understated and elegant lines. This table combines practical utility--it can serve as a living room table, a coffee table, an end table, a side table, or a small side table--while also making a very attractive
